The Bandits Shatter the Express Car With Dynamite.

The Safe Was Blown Open, and the Robbers Secured $20.

The Store Was Knocked Over and the Car and Contents Burned—Also the Passenger Baggage, Involving a Heavy Loss—Robbers Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—The postal authorities, Friday morning, received word from Roseburg, Ore., of the stopping of the Oregon express and the robbery of the mail coach and express car. The train left here at 10 p. m. Wednesday last for Portland and the robbery occurred at midnight Thursday night at Sandy Flats, two miles south of Roseburg. The train was signaled by a lantern. Engineer Morris stopped at the light and a maul and revolver in each hand, threw down from the tender, ordering "hands up."

Fireman Hendricks jumped off the car and ran for Roseburg, followed by a couple of shots. The robbers ordered Morris to back up the train and the mail and express cars were cut off. Then he ordered him to pull ahead for about 50 yards.

During this time Conductor Veach and brakeman Lohr went forth with their lights in the reconnoiter, but were shot at and ordered back.

Butler, the express messenger, put out his lights and went behind some stumps. He was ordered to get into the car. He opened a door and took a shot at the robbers, whereupon the highwaymen applied dynamite on the opposite side, which shattered the car. Butler jumped out, and seeing a robber, attempted to shoot, but his gun snarped and he ran or the Pullman car.

The robbers used dynamite on the safe and succeeded in opening the small one, getting out over $20.

They knocked over the stove, setting fire to the car, totally consuming it and its contents, including the passenger baggage, involving a heavy loss. They took some registered letters from the mail car and escaped.

Superintendent Fields of the Southern Pacific, who happened to be at Roseburg, was called about 1230 and took an engine and men to the scene. The burning car tumbled off the track and the train was brought in after several hours.

Engineer Morris had his cheek grazed by a bullet, and the express messengers dog was killed. The express pouches were rifled but the value of the letters taken is unknown. The end of the mail car was charred and some mail matter damaged by fire and water.

Several commercial travelers lost valuable sample trunks in the robbery. One case containing silver knives, forks and spoons, was found Friday morning in the slough. Nothing of value was recovered. The large express safe, unopened, was taken to Portland on the morning local.

The sheriff and his men are scouring the country, but there is no clue yet, as a heavy rain has been falling, and the tracks are muddy.

Up to a late hour Friday night no definite clues have been discovered leading to the robbers. The debris of the wreck has all been cleared away and trains are moving on time.

The metal of the safe was badly warped by the heat and it is feared that at least a part of the contents will be damaged. The debris of the wreck has all been cleared away and trains are moving on time.

OCCURRING AT ORANGEBOUR.

What The Ledger's Correspondent Reports From That Mississippi City.

Charles Calvert will make the race for Jailer. He says he has a walkover sure. Miss Fannie Barry of Vancouver is visiting Mrs. J. H. Browning near Orangeburg.

There is talk that Robert Bullock will make the race for Assessor at the next election.

Since the election things have changed wonderfully. Mr. Fletcher has put out one of new gates that will shut them selves.

Rev. Z. T. Wells is agent for a family paper. The pictures are so nice—four large ones and a yard of puppies; no poodles.

I saw in THE LEADER some time ago where Mr. Dwayne ran over Mr. Barney. Did it hurt the mule? It did not say at the time.

Our Constable will make the race for Sheriff. He says he can be elected without any trouble. He beat one silver Democrat and one true blue Democrat last election. Go it, Ed.

You would not know our old town. There has been three new houses built and talk of Thomas building to his storehouse and building a fine residence. That looks like things are getting better.

Since the great revival at Mt. Olivet they have had lots of dances, and they nearly all danced. A few of the best stayed at home. Go it while you are young, for when you get old you cannot dance.

Mr. June Reeder's horse burned one day last week, together with the meat house, all of his meat and everything he had but the clothes he had on and $6 in money. No insurance. Have your house and household goods insured in some good company, and in case of fire you will be all right.

Henry Soward tracked a coon to a large tree, and some one said to pour coal oil in the hole, which he did, and lit a bunch of hay, when out came four large coons all getting away one, which whipped all their dogs—ten hounds and a setter. But the coons were badly scorched and singed.

Z. T. Wells told the other day that where he came from they were harvest ing, and when they went to dinner some one said there was a wild turkey on a bush. He got it, and it was a bunch of the largest wild turkey he ever saw. He said he took it on his shoulder and its head dragged in the snow.

We had quite a runaway the other day. Charles Farrow's race mare Blue Mink ran off with him and his brother Sam at the action of the Democratic party.

J. B. Farrow's above Mt. Gilead. She ran nearly to Orangeburg, a distance of four miles, in about twelve minutes. The cause was an old goose. They tried it and put it in the cart. The signal for a go was a flap of its wings, and away they went. For about a mile they stayed in the cart, but she got so fast they stood on their heads in the pike. None were hurt except a few scratches.

RIDING ON THE RAIL!

What the Great Steel Highways Offer to Travelers.

Tour of All Mexico.
"The Egypt of the New World." Under special escort. Tickets include all expenses. Special train of Pullman palace vestibule equipped with dining cars, etc. Leave St. Louis, Tuesday evening, January 18, 1895, and will be used throughout the entire trip of thirty-four days. It is for the use of the management of the American Tourist Association and will make a complete tour of Mexico. An opportunity seldom offered to travel under such favorable auspices. Everything first class. The cost of the entire trip from Cincinnati $21.35; from St. Louis $20.00. For itinerary and descriptive pamphlet address S. H. Warwick, Agent from Mountain Route, 317 Vine street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Through Cars to California.
Via "The Union Pacific Route." The Iron Mountain Route, in connection with the Texas and Pacific and Southern Pacific Railways, offer to the tourist and business traveler a trip to California the following features. From St. Louis daily Pullman palace vestibule sleeping cars and every Thursday evening Pullman tourist sleeping cars to Los Angeles and other California points. The tourist cars are of the latest, weekly excursions are modern and built especially for our California travel. The excursions are personally conducted and the object of the tour is to enable those who do not wish to purchase first class tickets the privilege of sleeping car accommodations with no change of cars. No high altitudes and free from ice and snow, forming an ideal winter route to the Italy of America and her sunniest valleys. Via this route the danger of snow blockades is obviated. For maps, time tables and full particulars address S. H. Warwick, Agent from Mountain Route, 317 Vine street, Cincinnati, Ohio.
